

PAUL MILLER

DIVISION CHIEF OF EMS, CRAWFORDSVILLE INDIANA FIRE DEPARTMENT

Division Chief Paul Miller began his career on a paid on-call fire department in 1996 near Flint Michigan prior accepting a full-time position in June of 1999 with the Crawfordsville, Indiana Fire Department as a firefighter/EMT.

In 2014 Chief Miller was appointed to the rank of Division Chief from Lieutenant where he continues to serve.

Chief Miller has previously served as an adjunct instructor for Vincennes University & Ivy Technical College. Additionally, Chief Miller is a featured speaker for many state and national conferences, including the University of Cincinnati's Community Paramedic residency program. Chief Miller's current membership includes the International Fire Chiefs Association and Past President of International Association Fire Fighters L4143.